The guiding principles of the Concerned Citizens of Wilbraham are encompassed in the Statement of Principles as follows:

1.

We, the Concerned Citizens of Wilbraham, ask that our town officials, in the pursuit of their duties and responsibilities, commit to live within our means.

2.

We, the Concerned Citizens of Wilbraham, ask that while our ideas, votes and positions may differ from the town leadership, that we be listened to and respected equally as tax contributing members of our community.

3.

We, the Concerned Citizens of Wilbraham, pledge to take a more active role in our community. Attending more meetings, asking more questions and voting in larger numbers.

4.

We, the Concerned Citizens of Wilbraham, stand for complete governmental openness and straightforward answers from our town's elected and appointed officials, regarding town spending and other civic matters.

5.

We, the Concerned Citizens of Wilbraham, pledge to serve as a watchdog on local government spending and to encourage fiscal responsibility.
